Morgan county had seventeen schools sponsored last year and Mr. Brown visited these schools and works in cooperation with the county school superintendent.

Lacy Creek 4-H Club Tours Bluegrass and Veins Historic Sites

There were 37 members and guests of the Lacy Creek 4-H club making an all-day tour of the Bluegrass area June 6. A picnic at Joyland Park was a feature of the tour.

Traveling in a school bus, with Marvin Potter driving, they went via Mize, Hazel Green, and Sillwater, followed Route 15 down the Red River Valley to Winchester. During a rest stop there, they saw a six-horse team being decked in colorful plumes pulling a circus wagon which contained a huge polar bear. Refreshments of peanuts and apples were enjoyed along the way, thanks to the careful preparation of the club leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Conley.

The group intended to stop at Bonnesboro for additional refreshments. However, after a hurried look at Daniel Boone's statue through the rain, they continued on to Richmond. They drove slowly through the campus of Eastern State College as the County Agent described the use of the various buildings.

At Clay's Ferry, the group walked across the Clay's Ferry bridge which is 250 feet high and 1,733 feet long. They enjoyed the view of the Kentucky River gorge from this, one of the highest bridges in the Eastern United States.

A brief stop was made in front of Henry Clay's home in Lexington. A brief glance was taken at part of the campus of the University of Kentucky before going to Joyland for a picnic lunch. A bountiful lunch of sandwiches, extras, fruits, sweets and drinks was greatly enjoyed by the entire group. The youngsters enjoyed the rides in the park and watching the black bears and the monkeys.

A trip to see the statue of Man-O-War followed the stay at Joyland. Pictures of the group were made in front of the statue. His two sons, War Relic and War Admiral, were seen in their stalls.

After following the historic Ironworks Pike to Route 27, the club followed the road to Paris and returned to West Liberty by Mt. Sterling and U. S. 460. Those making the trip in addition to those already mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lewis and children, Paris; Kennel, Jewel, Joyce, Janis, Billy and Joan; Leova Williams; Judy Nickell; Sue, Stanley, Jerry, and Opal Haney; Louise, Shirley and Judy McGuire; Opal and Peanut Elam; Edith and Denzil Pack; Aquilla Conley; Mrs. Marvin Potter and her children, Jay, Ray, Raymond, Jackie, Ella, Reva, Margaret and Larry, and County Agent Dixon.

MORRIS MAKES STATEMENT

To Citizens and Voters—
I am pleased with the encouragement I am getting from people all over the county in behalf of my candidacy for County Judge. It is just a little over six weeks till you select me to fill the various offices of the county for the next four years. The power is in your hands till the first day of August, then you entrust or deed your power to the man that will have the power of the county the next four years. I am only seeking the office of County Judge and I am not meddling in any of the other races. If you don't know me just come over and ask my neighbors. They will give me reputation, the good and the bad both.

I have been elected twice for Representative of Morgan county. I have been a minister of the Gospel over 30 years. I am at present Moderator of Mt. Zion Association and also have pastoral care of three churches. Fathers and Mothers, I believe every one of you would trust me to preach repentance to your children. I wouldn't make promises that I knew that I couldn't do if that would elect me. But if you will trust me to be your County Judge the next four years, God being my helper, I will do my very best to give every section of the county (qual share in road work. So think it over. Let God direct your stencil, and I will be satisfied.

Your friend,

WITHDRAWS IN FAVOR OF MAY

TO THE VOTERS OF MORGAN COUNTY—

You have seen in the past weeks, notices printed in the Licking Valley Courier indicating my intention to be a candidate for the office of County Clerk and asking for your support and consideration in this election. I have received much encouragement from many friends following these notices in the paper. However, when it was known that Mr. Robert Wells had filed for the office of County Clerk, I again talked with my friends and re-considered the matter and decided that since I had not officially filed for the race that I would not seek election against Mr. May.

He is better known to the voters generally in the county than I, and I am confident that if he is elected and I desire a position in the office with him, he will give me satisfactory employment. Mr. May was born and raised in Morgan county and is one of our best citizens. He is qualified for the office. I am giving my support to Mr. May and will appreciate all my friends and citizens of Morgan county who would have supported me and the race to give their support and influence to Mr. May.

Thank you,

DYNAMITING OF TRUCK HALTS REA WORK IN WOLFE

Outside Union Men May Be Responsible, Wolfe Officials Say

Mysterious dynamiting of a truck of the A. A. Electric Company of Cicero, Ill. at Pine Ridge, Wolfe county Tuesday night caused the firm to temporarily halt all work on a contract to rebuild an electric transmission line for the Licking Valley REA from Campton to Little Sinking in Lee county.

The blast demolished the cab and engine section of a truck used in hauling poles. The truck, one of nine used by the contracting firm, was parked for the night near a filling station at the junction of Ky. 11 and Ky. 15 at Pine Ridge. Officers said a dynamite charge evidently had been placed in the cab with a delayed fuse.

Superintendent of the contracting company ordered all work halted until next week while the other trucks and equipment were being examined for similar charges of explosives, and while Wolfe county officers investigated the case.

The Cicero, Illinois firm had been working four weeks on a contract for the Licking Valley REA of West Liberty to convert a single-phase 7200-volt transmission line into a three-phase, 12,000-volt line, from Campton to Little Sinking in Lee county. The firm employed 14 skilled workers.

Fred Rose, manager of the REA, said he was told a union organizer from Lexington had visited the construction workers last week in an effort to unionize them.

Belief is expressed that the dynamiting was the work of out-of-county people since the contracting firm had had no trouble with local people.

$1200 An Acre From Strawberries Called Equal To Tobacco Income

With a gross income of $1,227.69 per acre from strawberries, Robert Cassity of Crockett thinks the crop is equal to tobacco in value and holds great promise for Morgan county farmers.

The acreage of strawberries in Kentucky has been reduced in half largely because of the atomic energy plant near Paducah and other army and defense installations in the larger strawberry areas, stated County Agent Charles E. Bach. Because of this, prices for Kentucky berries have been at a record high this year.

Mr. Cassity set 4,000 plants on seven tents here in the spring of 1952. His income this year from the patch was $819.38 from 774 gallons sold. The family used and gave away 50 gallons of over-ripe or smaller berries valued at $40.00, making a total gross income from the 7 acre of $859.38 equal to $1,227.69 per acre.

Mr. Cassity's expenses were listed as follows:

Plants	$34.00
Water & Fuel	49.00
1,400 lbs. fertilizer	32.00
Hauling & Marketing	70.00
Picking Cost	110.00
Straw Mulch	25.00
TOTAL	$320.00

Net income from 7 acre was $539.38 equal to $770.54 per acre. Mr. Cassity recognizes that he received no income from the land last year. However, he will harvest another crop next year. If his net income next year amounts to $500 per acre, he will have a gross income of approximately $700 per year and a net income

LOCALS LOSE TO OWINGSVILLE 9

(By Rudy Franklin)

Jimmy Danner, leading Bluegrass hurler, twirled the Owingsville baseball team to a 13-4 victory over West Liberty at Owingsville Sunday.

The victory again put Owingsville in sole position of first place in the Eastern division of the league while at the same time the loss dropped West Liberty into a tie with Winchester for sixth place.

Danner allowed 7 base hits and 4 runs as he pitched the Owingsville nine to their fifth win in six starts.

Richie Stacy was the moundman for West Liberty. This was the West Liberty team's fourth loss of the season and their third in a row.

West Liberty took a quick lead, scoring a run in the first inning on a single by Nickell, an error by Owingsville and a single by Stanley. West Liberty held the lead until the third inning when Owingsville rallied for five runs.

The West Liberty club will play Winchester here Sunday. This will be the second meeting between the two clubs. West Liberty defeated Winchester in their first encounter in an eleven inning game.

Hogge Spencer who has been sidelined for three weeks with a broken wrist, will be the probable pitcher for West Liberty. He will be opposed by Sonny Hyton for Winchester.

BENSON WANTS A POLL OF FARMERS ON AG. PROGRAM

Says Present Farm Program Creates High Prices and Surpluses

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson today called for a "grass-roots" poll of farmers on how the Government should tackle the problems of declining farm prices, shrinking export markets and mounting crop surpluses.

The American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Grange, and the National Farmers Union were asked to take the poll between July 1 and December 31. Results would be laid before Congress when it starts writing new farm legislation next year.

Benson has declared in recent speeches that present farm programs are "not good enough." He said they create surpluses, price United States farm products out of markets, and threaten Government reorganization of farmers.

The polltaking was placed in the hands of two friendly farm groups and one that has been hostile. Officials of the Farm Bureau and the Grange have generally applauded the Secretary's criticism of present programs, but the Farmers Union has defended them.

The suggested poll as a counterpart to a "Farm Family Policy Review" which former Agriculture Secretary Charles F. Brannan made two years ago through the Department's own field agencies.

That poll, which turned up generally favorable comment for the present programs and for some new policies advanced by Brannan, drew sharp criticism from some farm groups, particularly officials of the Farm Bureau and Brannan's Congressional foes.

Benson also has asked land-grant colleges, the experiment stations, agricultural foundations, and research organizations to provide polltakers with information regarding farm problems, and various proposals which have been advanced for solving them.

To Boost Postal Rates

WASHINGTON, June 15—Postmaster General Summerfield will ask for an increase in postal rates in an effort to wipe out a $594,250,000 deficit facing the Post Office Department. This was disclosed by Republican congressional leaders after their weekly conference today with President Eisenhower at the White House.

SO ROOMY! SO LOW IN PRICE!

Judge Pontiac purely from the standpoint of quality and it's hard to believe that it is actually a low-priced car. Certainly it's as distinctively styled as any car on the road—and its beauty carries through into its luxurious, roomy body by Fisher. Performance-wise, Pontiac is second to none, with power to spare that whisks you through city traffic or cruises with remarkable economy. And Pontiac is a big car, with a long, 122-inch wheelbase.

But Pontiac's outstanding feature is its price—a price so low that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac. Come in and get the facts that prove that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac!

There's only one answer...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

Fleet operators, farmers, independent truckers—truck users everywhere—buy more Chevrolets than any other make. There can be only one reason for that: Chevrolet trucks offer more of what you want.

As the official registration figures keep rolling in, they keep telling the same positive story about truck popularity and truck value:
Again in 1953, for the twelfth straight production year, truck buyers show a clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks.
If you're a truck user, this fact is mighty important to you. Why? Well, as you know, trucks are built and bought for just one reason—to do a job. So isn't it logical then that since Chevrolet trucks outsell all others, they must do a better job at lower cost?

That's why it will pay you to stop in and see us before you buy your next truck.

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

MORGAN SHEEP PROGRAM SECONDED BY THREE EXPERTS

The Courier's recent editorial pointing out that Morgan farmers can double their farm income by adding 50,000 sheep, already has been seconded by three people qualified to speak up and be heard.

One is a letter from Col. Henry Clay Cox of Huntington who owns a farm on Elkfork and has had considerable experience in raising sheep on this farm. Col. Cox writes: "From my experience with sheep on my farm, there is no doubt in my mind but what sheep raising in Morgan county is more profitable than any other livestock on the farm. I will be in West Liberty soon, and I will see you and tell you my reasons."

Another is a letter from Richard C. Miller, sheep specialist of the Kentucky Experiment Station. He writes: "I am glad that you are trying to interest farmers in a sheep program in Morgan county. Kentucky needs to double its spring lamb and wool production, and the Lamb and Wool Festival we are holding in Lexington June 15 is designed to start a program that will double our production by 1960."

The third is a statement by Ivan Jett of Georgetown, former well known farm program worker in Kentucky and now public relations director of the Kentucky Chain Store Council. Mr. Jett stopped in the Courier office to tell us, "It was not tobacco nor purebred cattle, but sheep that pulled the Bluegrass farmers through the depression of the 30's."

All of which bolsters our continued belief in the veracity of more than one humble mountain farmer who in years past told us that sheep are the only type of livestock that will pay for themselves in one season.

Not only will sheep pay for themselves in one season, but Kentucky lamb chops are rated delicacies on the menus of all the finer hotels in the East and North. However, Kentucky's sheep population has been allowed to decline so much in recent years that there are not enough spring lambs produced now to supply the demand. That's why Kentucky lambs are bringing $28 to $31 a hundred now while cattle have dropped $10 in 18 months.

Cattle population has increased nearly 20 percent while sheep population has declined more than 20 percent.

The future beckons, and there is a great opportunity for farmers who recognize the possibilities and act accordingly.

There is no more profitable animal for the rolling pastureland of Morgan county and certainly no more palatable delicacy for any table.

ALL OF MORGAN'S BURLEY ACRES WILL BE PLANTED BY MID-WEEK

Possibility of a crop failure is always a threat in an agricultural county like Morgan. And, particularly is this true of burley tobacco.

But Morgan burley growers at this stage of the growing season are in a much better position than they were at the same time last year. By the end of the week 95 percent of the county's acreage will be set out, and despite threatened loss of many plant beds by wildfire early in May, everybody will get enough plants to set their acreage this season.

Five or six weeks ago, an outbreak of wildfire during the rainy period threatened nearly all plant beds in Morgan. At that time it looked like farmers might have only enough plants to set a quarter or a third of the acreage.

But farmers countered the threat promptly by applying bluestone lime or nitrate of soda to the beds. This, and a period of sunny weather saved the most of the plants. Any remaining shortage of plants has or is being taken care of by the "good neighbor" policy. Growers who have a surplus of plants are sharing them with their neighbors.

All of Morgan's acreage will be set to tobacco this year—and probably by the middle of next week.

Last year, the early drouth killed plants in the beds, and as a result many fields were not set out until late June—and some as late as July 4. Yet, despite this and a later loss of much burley in the barns from houseburn, Morgan produced its second largest crop—a crop that brought $2,297,606.48.

The fact that all of the county's allotted burley acreage will be set out this year in due time and that the growing season so far has been excellent, with plants in the field taking off in good shape, gives good hope that Morgan will produce another record burley crop this year.

MORGAN HAS PARK POTENTIALITIES

We have returned from a pleasant week end visit to Cumberland Falls State Park and we are much impressed with the natural beauty of the park grounds, its forested hills, the ever-lovely waterfall, the river, rock formations, and the scenery in general. We came away imbued with a vision of such a park in miniature for Morgan county.

Morgan has natural beauties equal to that of the Cumberland Falls area. Here and there over our county are overlooks spanning scenic panoramas of sloping hills and fields and valleys. We have gorges wherein the tall pine, stately oak and the mountain laurel and rhododendron vie for beauty favors. Near the community of Blaze we have lovely and picturesque Yocum Falls, the water dropping from a hill-shadowed stream over the precipice to the lichen-covered rocks below.

The Yocum Falls area could be expanded into a park that would attract tourists from all of the forty-eight states. Rich in historical lore, the site of the old saloon, which flourished there years ago, could now be used for a trading post or gift shop, museum and dining room.

These possibilities are not too far-fetched, for several years ago a "resort-minded" business man came from Michigan to explore the area with the possibility of constructing a rustic lodge and making it into a resort.

That was before the new road was built. Today with a fine highway traversing the region, Morgan countians should look to the Yocum Falls area as a future park just as lovely as any of the State parks we now visit.

The very name of "Yocum" itself has been given enough publicity in comic strips to make Yocum Falls a stellar attraction. With the addition of L'il Abner's Trading Post or Mammy Yocum's Tea Room or even Pappy Yocum's Mountain Lodge, tourists would flock to see what it's all about. Tourist dollars added to Morgan's tobacco income would be just one more way of adding to the bank balance of almost every farmer hereabouts.

LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL, SCOUTING— TWO WORTHWHILE PROGRAMS

Two programs the Kiwanis Club of West Liberty has successfully inaugurated this year deserve not only commendation, but Kiwanians deserve the warmest thanks of everyone, particularly parents.

We refer to the Kiwanis club's successful campaign in raising the county's quota of $400 to expand the Boy Scout program, and its sponsorship of the boys little baseball league.

These two programs appeal to the hearts of youth, and steer their interests and energies into constructive channels. They are programs that help develop sturdier and better citizens for tomorrow.

All who helped in any way in making these two programs possible deserve our thanks and cooperation.

HISTORIC SITES IN MORGAN SHOULD BE MARKED

Placing of a granite marker at the grave of Joseph Carter, Sr., a Revolutionary War veteran at Old Grassy by the Morgan County chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, might well be the beginning of a broad program to mark all graves of Revolutionary War veterans and all places of historic interest in Morgan.

And Morgan county has many places of historic interest, being one of the oldest counties in Eastern Kentucky. It was established in 1823 after being settled around the turn of the nineteenth century by hardy pioneer stock that came in from Virginia and the Carolinas, many of the settlers being Revolutionary War veterans. Some had fought in the Battle of the Cowpens and it was but natural that they should name the new county after their gallant leader, Gen. Daniel Morgan.

Names of 14 Revolutionary War veterans buried in Morgan were listed by Col. John Tom Hazelrigg in his memorable address in West Liberty July 4th, 1875. No doubt there are others.

Historic sites, too should be properly marked, for already many tourists are stopping in Morgan. Also former Morgan countians and scions of early Morgan settlers are returning to the native heath of their forebears now that good roads into all parts of the county make it possible. They are sentimentally and profoundly interested in the county's early history as well as records of their forebears in Morgan.

There are many historic sites that should be marked with bronze plaques. Site of the home of Rev. Daniel Williams, first settler at West Liberty and the county's first preacher, should be marked. He built his home, we are told, near a spring that is now on a lot owned by Dr. D. R. Sparks. The history class of Cannel City high school, inspired by its teacher Wardie Craft, already has marked the early settler's grave in a cemetery at Caney. Rev. Daniel Williams was the grandfather of Capt. John T. Williams of Civil War renown. His progeny number in the hundreds in Morgan and nearby counties.

One of the first Baptist Associations organized in Kentucky was organized in what is now Morgan county by Rev. Daniel Williams in 1809. It was an outgrowth of the ancient Salem Association of Virginia. Possibly, the site of the meeting house where this association was organized could be determined. It too ought to be properly marked. Morgan, it is to be noted, is birthplace of several Baptist groups of Eastern Kentucky, and there is a rich history incident thereto. It should be preserved.

Site of the home of another early settler, Edmund Wells, where met the commissioners appointed by Gov. Adair to organize the county, should be determined and marked. Edmund Wells' home stood near the Licking somewhere in or near West Liberty.

Site of the Civil War battle of McClannahan Hill should also be marked, and possibly other battle sites. Likewise, the site of the Indian battle at Grassy Creek should be marked.

All of these could not be documented and marked in a year or two or three years; but work toward that end can be started. We hope the local D. A. R. chapter can continue the work it has so nobly started. Other groups and individuals may want to assist them in this program.

IN TOWN ON 92nd BIRTHDAY

Frank Lewis of Licking River was a visitor in West Liberty Tuesday on his 92nd birthday. Mr. Lewis and his brother Math, 84, usually walk to West Liberty, but this time he said that he got a ride with a neighbor. "But I had intended to walk the 2½ miles to town if I had not got a ride," he said. Mr. Lewis is in good health and straight as a pole. He said he had dropped tobacco plants and made a cussaw hills the day before. He returned two weeks ago from a visit in Middletown, Ohio to see his sister, Mrs. Mary Frances Day, who is 94 years of age.

MAJ. BARBER'S STORY TO BE PUBLISHED IN COURIER

A full story of the daring exploits of Maj. William E. Barber, Morgan county's top hero and Congressional Medal of Honor winner, was carried in the May issue of the National Police Gazette, illustrated with eight cuts. The story was told by Staff Sgt. Nick R. Rodriguez who said "Capt. Barber was the fightingest Marine officer I ever fought under." The story, telling of the tough ordeal and savage fighting around the Chosin Reservoir in northern Korea in the winter of 1950-51, reads like fiction.

The Courier has asked the publisher of the Police Gazette for permission to re-publish the story in Maj. Barber's home county, which he very generously granted. We will not be able to reprint all the pictures but we will carry the complete story in a coming issue of the Courier. It is titled "We Broke the Jaw of a Red Trap."

Last week I received the following letter:

Dear Mr. Nickell:
On April 29 you sent us a check for $400, as a result of Boy Scout finance campaign in West Liberty. On behalf of the council I want to thank you for the interest in this program. Please express our appreciation to each worker and each contributor in the campaign.

Cordially yours,
H. E. Bedenbaugh
Scout Executive

On behalf of the Boy Scouts of West Liberty, I want to express our appreciation to the Kiwanis Club and each one of the ladies who worked in this drive. We want to thank each contributor to this campaign and also thank the Commercial Bank, West Liberty Cut-Rate Market and the Town of West Liberty for their large donations.

This campaign will make possible a program of fun, health, adventure and good citizenship for our Scouts.

—J. Wendell Nickell, Chairman
Boy Scout Finance Campaign

The Courier—

Enclosed find $3.00 for which please subscription to the Licking Valley Courier. I look forward to getting my paper on Monday or Tuesday of each week and read everything in it. Always feel sorry to see the passing of any of my dear old friends. There was my dear niece Edna Neal, and Col. Taulbee, a relative on my mother's side, and dear old Sam Spencer and many others. Yet we can expect to see things in our paper that will make us sad and some things that we can be happy about.

My brother, the Rev. J. B. Kendall and Mrs. Kendall, drove to my home from Lexington last Sunday and I am so happy to have them. He, as you know, is in very poor health but I think the trip will be beneficial to him. I shall drive back to Kentucky with them around the first of July, and hope to see all of my friends in dear old Morgan. West Liberty where I was born is still God's country to me.

"Arise and be not afraid . . ."

The words of wisdom that come down to us from the past often bring our mind to bear on our own lives and problems. They help us equip ourselves for what we need to recognize as part of life. There is joy in facing the future and preparing our minds for life's inevitable changes if we only remember to be not afraid. Even adversity is a good teacher, for it is through the successful meeting of problems that we learn how to solve future ones. Responsibility and trouble can be made to bring rewards that lead us to a better understanding of ourselves and the world around us.

So let us all recognize that "into each life some rain must fall" . . . and let us not hesitate to meet that rain face to face, knowing full well we will not be afraid of it, and that ultimately it will be to our advantage to have gotten drenched by the sorrows of life . . . for with courage the sun is bound to shine on us again.—The West Liberty Funeral Home.

Mrs. Curt Jackson solicited on Grassy and received $5.30. Ezel community's total contributions were $47.50.

GRASSY CREEK—LARGE CROWD AT GREAR FUNERAL

GRASSY CREEK, Ky., June 16—The funeral of Mrs. Pearl Greear was attended by a large concourse of people from far and near attesting her popularity and their respect. No more beautiful display of flowers has ever been shown at Old Grassy Lick, as proof of the veneration in which she was held. As we were passing her bier, we stopped to take one last look at the remains of one whom we had ever thought of as a friend; of the many delicious meals those beautiful hands had prepared for us; of her friendly smiles at her home and wherever we chanced to meet. I thought, how peacefully she lay there, more beautiful in death than in life, and we sorrowed at the thought of her passing and the void she had left in the beautiful home where she loved to dwell.

Estill Gevedon is confined to his room with a broken leg. All but two of his children and his grandchildren were in to visit him over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gevedon and four daughters of Nickell; Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lawes and two children of Fairborn, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Junior Gevedon and daughter of Dayton, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Strattenburger and their daughter of Dayton, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gevedon and two daughters, Mrs. Genoa Peyton and daughter of Dayton, O., did not attend the gathering. Thirteen of these are my great grandchildren.

Our daughters, Helena and Nina, are visiting in Kansas with their sister, Mrs. Jean Fall and family.

We were sorry to hear of the death of our old friend and neighbor, Mrs. Susan Greear of Ezel. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gevedon and Mrs. Deward Adams were in West Liberty on business Monday afternoon.

Our local mail carrier, C. C. Chaney, hunts bees along his route. He and Joe Logan Gevedon went Monday afternoon to cut a "bee tree" he had located near his road, on the farm of Elijah Gevedon. Clay had learned to look for trouble while he was our deputy sheriff.

Aunt Jeston Gevedon still lies, helpless, in bed.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy extended to us in our great loss of our beloved mother, Lydia Elam, and to Mr. Potter, funeral director, and Dr. Spencer.—Her Beloved Children.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all our friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our wife, mother, sister and aunt, Pearl Greear.

We also wish to thank Dr. Alec Spencer for the help that he gave us during her illness, the ministers, Rev. Harlen Murphy and Glenn Lawson for their consoling words, the West Liberty Quartet for the beautiful songs rendered and those who sent the lovely floral offerings, and the Potter Funeral Home for their kind and efficient service.—The Family.

JOHN D. ENGLE, JR.

Send all poems to Mr. Engle
326 Woodland Avenue, Lexington, Ky.

The essays of Ralph Waldo Emerson are good medicine for a sick world, but Emerson's approach is always through the individual, and he emphasizes the fact that it is individuals, not groups, that make a world. Emerson has something worth while to say to everyone, and he has some very special things to say to those who would be writers. All those who are interested in writing poetry should read his essay, "The Poet." Those who have read it before should read it again. One never gets all of Emerson at one reading.

In "The Poet" Emerson says, "It is not metres, but a metre-making argument, that makes a poem—a thought, so passionate and alive, that, like the spirit of a plan or an animal, it has an architecture of its own, and it adorns nature with a new thing. The thought and the form are equal in the order of time, but in the order of genesis, the thought is prior to the form."

Walt Whitman also has some pertinent things to say about poets and poetry. In "Leaves of Grass" he says:

"All this time and at all times wait the words of poems. The words of true poems do not merely please.

The true poets are not followers of beauty but the august masters of beauty. The words of true poems give you more than poems.

They give you to form for yourself poems, religions, politics, war, peace, behavior, histories, essays, daily life, and everything else.

They balance ranks, colors, races, creeds, and the sexes.

They do not seek beauty, they are sought.

Forever touching them or close upon them follows beauty, longing, fain, love-sick. . .

Leafy Gibson of Wharncliffe, W. Va., a faithful contributor to M.M., gives us this week an interesting poem on the theme of loving and losing.

HAUNTED HEART
My gypsy heart keeps weeping at will—
A heart that loved and lost.

Just one petty quarrel, there on the hill,
Has crystallized our years in frost.

Isles of memories and melodious tones
Are the wingless creatures I bear.

While firelight flickers over the room,
An echo of laughter is mingled with fear.

A sheaf of letters, yellow with age,
Lies casually on my knee.

A Swiss music box that no longer plays
Is precious, yet useless, to me.

A lock of your hair, crispy and brown,
Still clings to my finger with love.

The dainty, white gown I never did wear
Lies tucked away in the attic above. . .

My pulses quicken in newer grief
As a train whistle cries in the night.

Oh, is it a symbol of new belief
That my haunted heart will win this fight?

Elliott F.F.A. Chapter Promotes Strawberries

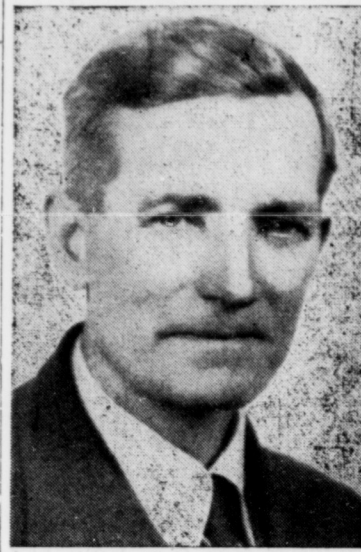

One of the most promising enterprises being engaged in at present in Elliott county by the Sandy Hook chapter of Future Farmers of America is strawberry production.

Paul Preston, agriculture teacher, stated that at present one third of all the chapter members had strawberry projects. The Sandy Hook chapter has been engaged in growing and promoting the growing of strawberries as a cash crop since 1950. Strawberries have proven to be as good and in some cases better as a cash crop than tobacco.

The ultimate goal of the chapter is to get strawberries established in Elliott county as a cash crop.

Miss Pearl Rigsby of Zag was a visitor in West Liberty Tuesday.

WM. 'BILLY' SMITH FOR JAILER

To the Voters and My Many Friends in Morgan County—

I have talked to so many of you, and most of the people I talk to seem to think that I won't have much trouble in being elected jailer.

I don't want my friends to make it too sure. We want to work hard and get everybody to go to the polls and cast their votes for the old man Wm. (Billy) Smith for Jailer.

Put me in and you will find the same man as I always was when I was Jailer before, trying to do something for the people while they live, for God knows we can't help each other after we are dead.

Your Friend as ever,
WM. (BILLY) SMITH

Three Plants Seek To Locate In Olive Hill

OLIVE HILL, Ky.—Mayor S. C. Tabor announced last week that business, similar to the Morton M. Rose Garment factory which he was instrumental in bringing to Olive Hill, a few years ago, are seeking location in Olive Hill—provided suitable housing can be supplied by the community.

Mayor Tabor stressed the fact that to obtain either of the industries, arrangements must be made at once to erect a suitable building, and that to do this it will be necessary for local citizens who have the money to invest in such a building, get together immediately and make the arrangements for the building.

Although Tabor would not release the names of the industries seeking location here, he did say that these plans would be of a type similar to the Morton M. Rose factory, and that possibly all three might be induced to locate here.

What Is The Limit Of Your Mind

All of us live at a lower mental level than we need to, keeping our reserve brain power under wraps for use in times of emer- gency. How we can train our sen- sory responses, our memory and our subconscious mind, and learn to summon these powers at will, is told by Ardis Whitman in a June Reader's Digest article con- densed from Your Life.

The mental feats of certain in- dividuals seem prodigious to or- dinary humans. A garageman in New York can tell you the license numbers of hundreds of cars in his garage. A former steward on the Twentieth Century Limited knew the names of hundreds of passengers and learned new ones on every run.

Such accomplishments may well be within reach of all of us, the article says. By proper exercise we can learn to utilize our un- tapped reserves of mental power. At Dartmouth's reading clinic students who normally could read 230 words a minute jumped to 500 in a few weeks. An ex- periment at the University of North Carolina indicates that we may even be able to learn while we sleep. A recording of fifteen words was repeated 30 times while a group of students slept. Next morning this group could list the words in proper order much more rapidly than students who had not "studied" while asleep.

Few of us have any trouble re- membering what is important to us, the author notes. Youngsters who cannot recall history dates can easily keep track of the sea- son's baseball scores and batting averages.
Every time we call a phone number without looking it up we buttress our memory. By forcing ourselves to observe how things look in a room or garden, and to remember them afterward, we train our sensory responses and learn to summon the power of the mind at will. By keeping alive a curiosity about other peo- ple and their problems we enrich our own minds.

The subconscious mind should be developed too. As it is be- lieved to possess knowledge the conscious mind lacks, it may sometimes provide the answer to a question baffling the conscious mind. The more richly stored the conscious mind is, the better the subconscious mind works.

Grassland Farming Is Stressed At Meeting

One of nine district conferences of representatives of State and Federal agencies was held in Morehead the first week in June to discuss the distribution of in- formation about grassland farm- ing.
Due in part to the high cost of row crops, many farmers are said to be interested in more and better grass and legumes for the production of meat, milk and eggs.

Nearly half of Kentucky's crop land is in pasture, much of which could be improved by better seed- ing and by fertilizing, it was said at the meetings. Instances were cited where an acre of grass produced milk worth $96.30 where the value of feed replaced by pasture was $67.53 and where an acre of grass was equivalent in feed value to $56 worth of corn.

Lice did extensive damage to alfalfa in Oldham county, prac- tically every field in the county being affected.

RULING GIVEN ON TEACHERS
FRANKFORT, Ky.—A person who is offered a teaching position has no vester right to teach in a particular high school, but may be transferred to an elementary school without violating the terms of a continuing contract, the Court of Appeals held in overruling pleas of Walter Con- ley, Magoffin County teacher that his attempted transfer from high school to an elementary school was illegal.
"The terms of a continuing con- tract relate solely to employment, and not to a particular position," the Court observed.

Pay more? What for?

Fifty Years Forward on the American Road

You don't have to pay costly-car prices for costly-car comforts.

Ford brings you everything [and we mean everything] you've ever wanted in a car, at a price that's well within your reach! And according to recent surveys, a Ford returns more of its original cost when sold than any other car at any price!

Here are a few of the "Worth More" advantages you'll find in the '53 Ford:

1. A V-8 engine—powerful and smooth!

Ford's famous high-compression V-8 is a leader in quiet, flexible, economical performance. Ford, remember, has built more V-8's than all other makers combined—over 13 million!

2. America's most economical Six engine!

If it's a Six you want, Ford offers you the high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker . . . the engine which, with optional Over-drive, won over all other cars, regardless of size or weight, in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run! And it's yours for the same kind of money that buys less modern sixes in other cars.

3. America's finest and most versatile automatic drive!

Fordomatic Drive is the "automatic" which gives you both the get-up-and-go of automatic gears and the smoothness of a fluid torque converter. If you choose Fordomatic, you will find that it makes all your driving easier . . . more relaxing.

4. Automatic gas savings!

Ford's Automatic Power Pilot (on Six and V-8) meters just the right amount of gas, times ignition precisely, burns fuel evenly and completely. You get full high-compression performance from every drop of gas—regular or premium.

5. America's newest and finest power steering!

Ford's Master-Guide power steering gives you new ease, stability and safety in guiding your car on smooth roads or rough. Your car gains in sure-footed roadability and you expend up to 75% less effort in driving—and parking.

6. Largest choice of models in the low-price field!

Ford alone gives you a choice of 18 different models . . . a SIX or V-8 . . . Fordomatic, Conventional or Overdrive . . . the widest variety of body, color and upholstery combinations. You can practically "design" your own Ford!

7. A body that's the style-setter!

Only Ford in its field gives you the advantages of a hull-tight Crestmark Body . . . the trend-maker in design and beauty. Ford's body is the longest and Ford's trunk, the largest. You enjoy more usable space.

8. New driving conveniences!

Ford's first in its field with such "Worth More" features as easier-acting, suspended pedals that eliminate floor holes . . . foam rubber cushions on front and rear seats in all models . . . and convenient Center-Fill Fueling.

9. An automatically controlled ride!

When you Test Drive this Ford, notice how the wide front tread (widest in the low-price field) takes tilt out of turns . . . gives you a more level ride. With new "balanced suspension," new spring and shock absorber action and new rubber compression bumpers, road shock in the front end alone is reduced up to 80%.

10. It's worth more when you sell it!

An impartial survey of used car prices proved that Fords return a greater proportion of their original cost than any other cars in America. It's another fact to add to Ford's reputation as the "Worth More" car. But don't take our word for it. Stop in and Test Drive this Ford for yourself. We predict you'll be sold before you're in second! It was true last year and it's even truer this year: you can pay more, but you can't buy better than Ford.

WORTH MORE WHEN YOU BUY IT . . .

WORTH MORE WHEN YOU SELL IT . . .

With Your COUNTY AGENT

Charlie Dixon

County Agent Charlie Dixon stated today that by starting now and following his suggestions Morgan county farmers could be sure of having plenty of tobacco plants next year. He pointed out that there would be a few failures but neighbors would have plenty plants to share with those who were short. He offered as proof, the fact that the Agricultural Experiment Station had produced clean plant beds free of wildfire for the past 30 years.

Mr. Dixon suggested the following steps be taken at once:

1. Select a site where there is no shade and the morning sun hits fairly. It is preferred that the site be within 200 feet of a water supply. It should be so located that no water will run off a road or be splattered from a road onto the site. It may be where a bed was located this year if the further suggestions are followed.

2. Sow each bed site in 15 pounds of soybeans by July 1.
Sow an area 15 feet by 110 feet
for each 100x9 foot bed.

3. About September first, disk and plow under the soybeans.
About a week later, disk the bed again.

4. Treat the bed at that time for weed control by burning, using methyl bromide gas or cyana-
mid. Be sure to follow directions the manufacturer or the county agent in treating the bed. If cyanamid is used, a bag of 20 percent phosphate should be added and 800 gallons of water
sprinkled on each bed.

5. It is extremely important to ditch around the bed so that no surface water will run over the bed even after very heavy rains.

6. Next spring sow 100 feet of bed for each acre of tobacco. Use side boards and good canvas.

Treat with bluestone-lime and DDT exactly as the county agent recommends.

Fla beetles destroyed a bed for Ted Cassidy of Blairs Mills this spring. He resowed it May 6. He used bluestone-lime and DDT as the county agent recommended.
He treated it twice with ammonium nitrate. On June 12 he set his crop from the bed. This is perhaps a near record for fast growth of good plants.
